

Terms of use

The participant in the present referendum gives in his own will his personal data concerning his full name, email address, place of residence (not the exact address) and his telephone number so as his actual participation in it can be confirmed.

The above data in combination with the answer in the question of the referendum will be used exclusively by EEKE for the purpose of protecting the main residence by the auctions through their send in the responsible ministries. The participant accepts unconditionally the send and in no circumstances these data will not be used by EEKE for any other purpose besides the foresaid.

Every participant has the right of one vote and that as long as he is an adult, above the age of 18.

I wish to participate in the present electronic referendum and I declare that I agree and accept the above terms declaring at the same time that all the personal data are full and true.